ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS OF
THE INITIAL ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
ANTIOCH COLLEGE CONTINUATION CORPORATION

THIRD: PURPOSES

The purposes for which the corporation is formed are as follows: the Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes as set forth in § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law ("Code"), including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as charitable or educational tax exempt organizations under Code § 501(c)(3), other than private foundations, and including, but not limited to, the following:

- (i) To receive the assets of Antioch College wherever located including, without limitation, those assets located in Yellow Springs, Ohio, and to operate Antioch College as an educational institution at that location and at such other places as its Board of Trustees may determine, where instruction in every branch of useful learning may be given, and where equal facilities for education may be afforded to both sexes of persons;
- (ii) To conduct any or all lawful affairs, not required to be specifically stated in the Articles of Incorporation, for which nonprofit corporations may be incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio, but exclusively limited to those activities that are within the scope of permissible activities under Code § 501(c)(3); and
- (iii) To receive and administer funds within the scope of the above-stated purposes and exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Code § 501(c)(3) and, these Articles of Incorporation and, to that end, to hold any property, or any undivided interest therein, without limitation as to amount or value; to dispose of any such property; to invest, reinvest, or deal with the principal or the income in such manner as, in the judgment of the Trustees, will best promote the purposes of the Corporation without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which property is received, these Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws of the Corporation, or any applicable laws; and to do any other act or thing incidental to or connected with the foregoing purposes or in advancement thereof, but not for the financial gain or other benefit of its Trustees or Officers or any other non-charitable person.

FOURTH: USE OF ASSETS

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its exempt purposes. The Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office and no substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. Notwithstanding any provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (1) a corporation exempt from Federal income taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or (2) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

FIFTH: DISSOLUTION.

This Corporation may be dissolved by resolution of a majority of its Trustees.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, all of the remaining assets of the Corporation shall be distributed only to one or more organizations created and operated for one or more exempt purposes, all of the foregoing within the meaning of Article III hereof and within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or shall be distributed to an agency of federal or state government exclusively for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

SIXTH: MEMBERS.

The Corporation shall not have members.
