Through readings, discussion, and participation in an international week-long training institute hosted at Antioch, we will develop a model of integrated theory and practice that positions oral history as a clearly-defined method for scholarly inquiry in the humanities and humanistic social sciences, a method guided by the best practice of 'informed consent'. Financial Aid and Registration

The Federal Financial Aid Award Year is scheduled from July 1st through June 30th. Antioch College's academic calendar is scheduled from Fall Term through the July-August Block. Antioch's calendar does not align with the Federal Financial Aid Award Year.

By registering for the N-D Block at this point (FA 22) students will know how much financial aid will be required for the next award period for the following block term

□

Registration	FA 22	N-D 22	WI 23	SP 23	J-A 23
Financial Aid	J-A 22	FA 22	N-D 22	WI 23	SP 23

- Students will register for Fall term and the following November-December block term at the same time.
- Registration for Winter term will stand alone
- Students will register for Spring term and the following July-August block term at the same time.

Although the registration for each block term will be combined with the registration for the previous regular terms, financial aid will combine each block term to the following regular term. Please see the financial aid director for further clarification and planning of your financial aid awards to cover the courses you need to take

By registering for block terms simultaneously with the previous regular terms, students and the Financial Aid Office alike are better able to plan how to allot the next regular term's financial aid to cover any expenses for a block term.
