Dear future Antiochian:

I am so glad that you are joining the Antioch College community as a student this Fall term! I want to welcome you and offer my support during the years ahead. I serve as the Dean of Students and Community Life, head of the Student Affairs and Community Life team, and member of Dean's Council, where we strive to bring the three Cs (Classroom, Co-op, and Community) together in meaningful ways everyday. We will spend a lot of time together in throughout our New Student Orientation program later this August. The orientation planning team of faculty, staff, and students is working hard to create a meaningful experience for you, our newest community members. Please plan to participate fully throughout orientation.

In the coming weeks, you will receive communication from Residence Life about your housing assignment, the campus dining experience, and move-in plans. You will also receive information from the Orientation Planning team about the Orientation schedule, your Orientation leaders, and getting to know the community you will be joining in person in less than a month. In the meantime, please familiarize yourself with your online resources:

- Campus Housing information and dates (link here)
- Campus Dining information and hours/dates (link here)
- Campus Counseling resources (link here)
- Academic Support Services (link here)

These pages contain information that will help you and your family/support folks plan to ensure you have what you need in place to support a healthy transition to campus life. We know you will contribute to the community here in important ways in the time ahead, and we trust that, as we get to know one another well, we will find ways to connect you to people and experiences that will propel you forward in achieving your goals. I am looking forward to seeing how your presence here will shape our unique learning community. I am grateful to the student orientation leaders who have advice to share, and who all want you to have a great experience-we look forward to introducing you to that team soon. We are here to help you have a great transition to and experience on campus - let us know if you have any questions at any point. Again, welcome!

Sincerely,

Sherri L. Ihle, M.S.
