

ANTIOCHIAN JOURNAL

Announcements

JA Block and Fall registration will be done exclusively with digital forms that need to be submitted using the Registrar Document Submission Form. This is your only way to reserve your spot in a class. Proper electronic submissions will be processed on a first come first served basis beginning when registration opens. Forms received before registration opens will be deleted and not processed. We are beginning Fall registration a day earlier this term, during the Academic Open House, on Tuesday, June 2, 1:30 pm in the Olive Ketting Library.

Comcil Nominations:

The Community Government nomination form amd deadline has been pushed a week!

I encourage you to nominate yourself or your fellow peers for the College Council, Community Council, Board of Trustees, or Curriculum Committee. Your voice and leadership can help make a real difference in the Antioch College community!

Last Day to Submit nominees is June 5th!

Mad River Theater Works Theater Camp

Mad River Theater Works, with the support of the Yellow Springs Community Foundation and the Ohio Arts Council, joyfully invites youth between the ages of 8-17 to participate in a two-week Summer Theater Workshop this June. We will explore theater arts skills, create an original play with music and put it on its feet in front of a hometown audience.
